

Guidance Notes for the Scarecrow Trail in association with Lindfield in Bloom

Venue: Scarecrows to be positioned in front gardens or in High Street (By Prior Arrangement)

Open to Public: Saturday, 22nd September 10.00pm – 4.00pm

- Scarecrows must be in a prominent position from 10 am – 4pm on September 22nd September 2018 to allow public to view and judge the exhibits.
- Those entering the Scarecrow Trail will be entered on a map (Street name only) and these maps will be handed out to the public on request, to follow a trail and to judge their first, second and third favourite.
- Scarecrows will be judged by the public are for display purposes only and will remain the property of those who make the scarecrow.
- You will be responsible for the removal or any materials used in your display.
- In the event of a tie, Lindfield in Bloom will select a winner.
- The judge's decision is final.
- Trail maps with voting forms will be available from the Lindfield Arts Festival Information Point throughout the day.
- Judging will take place throughout the day and the Scarecrow with the most votes will be announced as the winner at 5pm at the LAF information Point.

Guidance Notes

- You warrant that the work will contain nothing obscene, blasphemous, libellous or otherwise unlawful and will not infringe the copyright or any other rights of any third party – the curators have the right to remove any work which does not comply.
- Please also be mindful when selecting decorations for your Scarecrow and that this is a family event and the display should not include anything that is not suitable to be viewed by children.
- Your Street Name will appear as a location for a Scarecrow as part of the trail.
- Please ensure you promote your Scarecrows amongst your friends and colleagues and encourage them to do the Scarecrow Trail and vote for their favourites.
- Please contact the following if you have any queries:
heather@heathermartin.co.uk or maygardens@icloud.com